WEATHER FACTS. WARRINGTON, July 26 -Chio:

> SPRINGFIELD, O., July 26, 1888.

The thermometer seems to to have on its full summer habit. This is always high in the neck, have you observed? The thermometer just the time you would think burglars were unsuccessful. it ought not to be-winter. Funeral Address by Robert G. Ingersoil Then it goes very low in the neck indeed.

You and the Thermometer

Differ in this. In fact, it is a have reached, and where the voyage of kind of game of "teeter" between you. As the thermom-two do the last kind acts that man can do Differ in this. In fact, it is a eter goes up you go down, and vice versa, as it were. That is to say, in these hot days you want low-necked, open-front goods, and we remark that the place to get them is with us.

But, most of all, you want a hat, and we rise to remark that there is no place in this master. Such a man was Courtlandt to do the last kind acts that man can do for man—to tell his virtues, lay with tenderness and love his ashes in the secret place of rest and peace. Let us believe that pure thoughts, beloved words, and generous deeds can never die; let us believe that they bear fruit and add forever to the well-being of the human race, that suffering life increase the moral wealth of men, and give assurance that the future will be better than the past. A free and independent man, one is manded. One who refused to be a slave or manded. One who refused to be a slave or manded. One who refused to be a slave or manded. One who refused to be a slave or manded.

that there is no place in this market where you can get one as good and as cheap

THE WHEN.

25 and 27 West Main Street.

And Marvelous Bargains.

Silk Department:

Five pieces Black Armure Silk, not a yard ever sold at less than $1.50; our price emorrow will be $1 a yard.
Five pieces Colored and Black Satin es; a great bargain at 75c a y urd. lour Ren Silks tomorrow at about half their former

Dress Goods Department:

The prices that we will put on popular

Gauze Underwear:

The prices we make tomorrow on Gents' nd Ladies' Gauze Underwear are posi-

Hosiery will have another shaking up tomorrow, and you want to remember one thing always. If we advertise to sell an article at 18%c that is worth 25c, we mean it, and the price for that article everywhere We will seil the best Unlaundried Shirt

Parasols:

Fifty Cosching, the very latest designs, at 75c and $1 each.
Seve of twe 26-inch Umbrellas, best Paragon frame and gold handles and worth $2.50, our price tomorrow $1.45 each.

Domestic Department:

All our best Lawns and Batistes, in Remnants, and always sold at 12½c and 15c, tomorrow the price will be 6½c a yard. One bale 4-4 Brown Sheeting, cheap at 8c per yard ; 5c will be the price tomorro' Colored and White Embroidered Scarfs.

Just the thing for porch or evening ear; three wonderful bargains for Friday

Linen Department: Were you there last Friday? We think

Pursuant to the command of an execution of sale issued from the Court of Common pleas of Clark County, Ohio, and to me directed and delivered. I will offer for sale at public auction at the south door of the court house of said county, in the city of Springfield, Ohio, on Sale County A. D. 1888.

tion at the south door of the court house of said county, in the city of Springfield, Ohis, on Saturday, August 25, A. D., 1888, at 1 o'clock p. m., the following described mertgaged premises, to-wit:

Situated in the city of Springfield and bounded and described as follows, viz:

Being part of the west half of section No. 28 of township No.5, tange No.9 M. B. S. Begrinning on the north line of Pleasant street at a point forty feet east of the intersection of the east line of Central avenue with the north line of Pleasant street; thence running north parallel with the east line of Central avenue one hundred and sixty-five (165) feet more or less to what was formerly Jacob Syke's south lines thence eastwardly along what was formerly Jacob Syke's south lines thence eastwardly along what was formerly Jacob Syke's south lines thence eastwardly along what was formerly Jacob Syke's south lines thence castwardly along what was formerly Jacob Syke's south line in the lost of the south parallel with Central avenue one hundred and sixty-five (165 feet to the north line of Pleasant street; thence westward along the north line of Pleasant street; thence westward along the morth line of Pleasant street; thence westward along the morth line of Pleasant street; thence westward along the morth line of Pleasant street; thence westward along the south line of Pleasant street forty (40) feet to the place of beginning, seeing same premises enveyed to Mary A. Thornton by John Hawkins and wife, April 28, 1886, and recorded in volume 85, pages 452 and 483 of Clark County Deed Records.

WILLIAM B. BAKER, Sheriff Of Clark County, Ohio. 28, Attorney. 1770.

4:15 P. M.

ANOTHER DAY'S EVENTS

The Usual Assortment of Railroad Collisions and Other Catastrophes of Various Sorts. The German Emperor Greeted at Stockholm by the King.

CONCORD, Mass., July 26.-A bold tempt was made last night to rob the Concord bank, the burglars entering through an upper window. Considerable work was is never decollette except at done in trying to open the vault, but the

> NEW YORK, July 26 .- At the funeral of Courtlandt Palmer Col. Robt. G. Ingerso!! ielivered the address. He said: "A thinker of pure thoughts, a speaker of brave words and a doer deeds has reached ilent heaven that all the dead which was very largely attended. Speeches the welcome blossoms had come. Durwere made attacking the course pursued by U. S. judges in landing the College, and were a source of great comfort to him, nota memorial was adopted, declaring that withstanding the pain that racked him alevery legal device was resorted to evade the restriction law. The following was adopted:

"We demand the imposement and removal of Lorenzo Sawyer, judge of the flower in his fingure.

CHICAGO, July 26.—Robert Henderson of Silver City, Idaho, said to be a million aire, was found this morning in a room at the Ogden house, unconscious and barely alive. The gas in the room had been blown out instead of turned off. Theories of foul play or attempted suicide were ex-pressed. Henderson remained in a coma-tose state for hours. The doctors were unable to say whether or not he would re-

CHICAGO, July 26 .- A collision that narowly missed resulting in the death of a umber of passengers and train hands oc-

A Chicago Assamination CHICAGO, July 26 .- John Sommers, oon keeper, was shot and fatally wounded, ast night, by John Jones, his nephew. There had been much family trouble for two Sommers had not been permitte to leave his room. Last night Jones went to Sommers's room and fired three shot into the unfortunate man as he lay in be

CHICAGO, July 28 .- It is stated today that since the arrest of Hroneck the police have made an important discovery by working upon the fears of Hroneck's wife. Mrs. Hroneck brought from the basement of the building in which Sevic's shop is, a narket basket full of half burned sticks of the stuff. There were fully ten pound

STOCKHOLM, July 26 .- The Emperor ar rived here this afternoon. He was received by King Osear and Crown Prince Gustaf. The streets of the city_are crowded with people, and the houses profusely decorated

Fire at Chicago. CHICAGO, July 26.—The Sash and Blind factory of Haber & Graham, Fifty-third and Clark streets, was completely destroyed

Cleveland Goes to New York. WASHINGTON, July 26.—The president left at 11 o'clock this morning for New York, accompanied by Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Folsom and Col. Lamont.

The cigar and tobacco store of Mr. Charles M. Billow, No. 3 west Main street, is becoming daily more popular. It is a little gem of a store and Mr. Billow handler only the best brands of goods.

Funeral of John Bern. Information is received from Urbani that the funeral of John Hern will take place in that city tomorrow, Friday, after noon, at 2:30 o'clock.

THE POLICE PICNIC. The Date Fixed at August 15-Crowd from Chief Ambrose was in Dayton yesterday while there concluded arrangements with the Dayton police and city officials to attend the big consolidated police picnic here. The time was fixed at Wednesday, August 15, and it will be almost as much of a Dayton as a Spring-field affair, as arrangements have been field affair, as arrangements have been completed to run up a big excursion from our sister city. A solid car load will come under the auspices of the Dayton police alone, and they are tickled to death at the

A NARROW ESCAPE. A RATTLING CAME.

About half-past ten o'clock this forence what came very near being a most seriou ceident loccurred on west Main street The delivery wagon of George P. Frank the horse attached became frightened in

Co. was standing in front of the store, when the horse attached became frightened in some way and started to run. Some person in attempting to stop the animal caused it to run in upon the pavement. Just at that point a lady was passing with a small child in a baby cab, and, seeing the horse coming, the lady made an effort to get out of the way? and in her great haste and fright overturned the cab, throwing the child out. At the same instant the horse was upon them, and in attempting to pass was upon them, and in attempting to pass was upon them, and in attempting to pass struck a telegraph pole, breaking loose from the wagon. The horse was right upon the cab and child, and every one expected the life of the little one to be trampled out by the frightened beast. Young Harry Barr, son of J. M. Barr, succeeded in catching the horse, and another gentleman gathered up the baby from underneath the very hoofs of the horse, thus certainly saving its life.

ing its life.
The half-crazed mother expected to see

The half-crazed months capeed to the her child trampled to death, and became almost paralyzed with fear.

The child was taken to the office of Dr. Baker, near by, and beyond a few slight bruises was not found to be injured. The other could hardly believe that her child had escaped, and when the injuries were found to be so slight, and the great fear re-moved, was almost prostrate from the ef-

It was truly a narrow escape for both child and mother, and for a moment the

THE FLOWER MISSION.

Regular Meeting Today-An Incident

er Mission this morning was very success all that could be desired. Those who kindly sent donations were Mr. Aldrich, the florist: Miss Fannie Rodgers, Mrs. Dr.

demanded demanded freedom, and gave what he was manded. One who refused to be a slave or master. Such a man was Courtlandt Palmer." Colonel Ingersoll finished by reading one of Mr. Palmer's poems. A religious service was read by Mrs. Palmer's pastor, Rev. Dr. Heber Newton. The cremation and interment of the ashes occur at the convenience of the family.

It requires but a single instance to show the gratefully received.

It requires but a single instance to show the good that the Micsion is accomplishing in its quiet and unassuming way. Last week one of the invalids supplied was a German, down with an incurable disease and rapidly approaching death. He looked up gratefully when some of the young ladies of the mission brought the flowers, but he could not understand their inanguage, and did not know from whom language, and blossoms had come, During however, there was a return of the para-lytic trouble, and it became immediately rident that his death was but a matter o a few days. He continued to sink steadily until 4 o'clock this morning, when he died. The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made, but it will take place

The Pontes Ban Away.

John T. Norris was out airing his ponies on east Main street this forenoon, and left his buggy for a few moments on some business. The little mascots, 'finding them

They proceeded down the street unmo-lested, until they reached the REPUBLIC building, when a colored man overtook them and brought them to a standstill ut damage to vehicle or team. John T. finally came up, threw the colored man a big round silver dollar and drove off, to pursue "the even tenor of his way.

Judge Young disposed of the following cases in police court yesterday: George Earick, using profane language, $5 and costs; Wm. Butler, Jas. Huffman, Chas. Aldrich, Linnie Holland and Hattie Garret, all drunk and disorderly, $5 and cests each; Harry Bentz, house breaking, coneach; Harry Bentz, house breaking, con-tinued until July 31; Geo. Earick, carrying aled weapons, continued until tomor-Rose Stewart, disorderly, $5 and costs; Mike Shaffer, petit larceny, $25 and costs and 30 days in the Dayton work

The trial of John Golden, the alleged Rattling Game at Cedarville.

The base ball nine of the Southern school use, one of the best amateur clubs in the city, went to Cedarville yesterday and suffered defeat at the hands of the club there in a rattling game, by a score of 9 to 2. The game was hotly contested to the very last, the score standing 2 to 2 until the ninth inning, when the Cedarville boys struck a streak and piled up 7 runs.

In the first inning a spectator named Dening was struck in the head with a bat the struck of one of the which slipped from the hands of one of the player and was knocked senseless. He is Reliable information is received from Chicago to the effect that ex-Officer James Norton, who left this city for the Illinois metropolis a few weeks ago-and left in haste-has been appointed special police man at the great works of the Deering Manufacturing Co., the binder firm. This is decidedly a handsome raise for the vet-eran officer, one that he is capable of filling. Outside his little affair with a "charming little widow." Uncle Jim has an admirable record in Springfield. As a police officer, he ranked very high in the Springfield been dissolved, by Mr. Samuel Schaffer retiring. He has sold his interest in the bus-iness to Mr. Wm. Mitchell, of Tremont, and

These are both excellent young men, ex-perienced in the business, and "push It is a neat and attractive building, and things" in their department of trade. They re of the day's sport at the fair ground resterday was the game of base ball b ween the Springfields and the crack Sham rocks. Fully five hundred people witnessed the contest, which presented some very pretty points. It required ten in-nings to settle the game, and it was anybody's up to the time the last man was declared out. As the error column will show, the two teams fielded column will show, the two teams fielded pretty evenly, but the Springfields were the more successful with the bat, solving Courtney's curves for 18 hits, with a total of 24 bases. The Shauirocks, on the other hand, could do nothing with Swope, making on inning. The batting of Metcalf was the st. White and U.

Rather Pretty Exhibition of Base Bal

White and Hawse, of the Springfields, did some Latham-like coaching, of a really meritorious sort, and greatly to the delight of the crowd. "Don't get married to the hits and three stolen bases so far?" "Oh, no, we can't run bases, we can't, can we?" "Run on down to the sec-can't, can we?" "Run on down to the second; there's nothing there," etc., were specimens of young White's loquacity that kept things humming. He is the Latham of the future, and plays a good game of ball besides. Lew Burnett umpired the game satisfactorily, and his work in the diamond was particularly close and commendable.

The Shamrocks tied the game in the ninth, but in their half of the tenth the Springfields, aided by costly errors, batted out six runs and secured a lead which gave them the game.

r.n. z. s n. r.o. z

Metcalf, r. f	5	2	1	0	ő
Totals	44	14	18	30	9
SHAMEO	CKB.
	TR	2.	BH	P.O.
Wier, 1st. Elliot, 3d. Courtney, p Wilson, e. Warren, c. f Stone, i. f Wilson, 2d. Zoller, s. s. Gienn, r. f	661860656	11120110	1 0 1 1 1 1 1	6 3 0 17 0 1 2 0 1	221000210
Totals	54	10	8	30	8

THEY WANT TO BE RECOGNIZED.

Editor Rowe, of the South Charlesto

"The following is a list of those who president in 1840, and who are known to be earnest supporters of the grandson, General Ben. Harrison, for president in 1888:

"Wm. Ramsey, Wm. Comrie, Isaac Hedrick, Robert Clark, Dr. E. T. Collins, John Randin, John Wentz, Rev. J. S. Kemper, Thos. Murphy, Wm. Davidson, John McKinney, George Gilroy, sr., C. C. Hill, Sanford Drake, Michael Leidigh, Truesdale Reeder, Levi Jones, sr., Simeon Warner, Valentide Stites, John Coberley, Matthew Mattinson, L. M. See, Milton Packer, N. C. Kershner, John Price, Geo. Watson, Newton Baldwin.
"There are three others who voted for Harrison in 1840, but who have cast their lot with the prohibition (third) party, and will vote for Gen. Fisk. "None of the above appeared in the list

"None of the above appeared in the list of "1840 voters of Clark county, sent from Springfield to the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, and published in that paper last

Although it Had Strongly the Appearant of It At First.

At about 2 o'clock this morning Office umate of Madame Mag Hughes's maison de jole on Winter street. At first it ap-peared as though the woman had taken poison, as she was in a semi-conscious con-dition, discolored about the face and lumps on her limbs. She had to be carried upstairs bedily into the women's department of the station house. Here her dress was loosened in front and she immediately re-vived. It is thought that she has heart trouble of a serious nature, which was augmented last night by a big load of whisky.

The officer found the woman in a water closet near the corner of Center and Wash ington streets. She had a razor in her possession and was threatening to cut he throat and perform other sanguinary feats of a suicidal character. She was looked up for drunkenness and safe keeping.

Last (Wednesday) evening the resi dence of Mrs. Sarah Huffman, 65 east Patton street, was the scene of a successful surprise party given in honor of Miss Ma To say that the surprise was complete is say the least. The evening was spent de-lightfully in games and other amusements which all present enjoyed. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Huffman, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brassfield, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Logan; Misses Mattie Ward, Clara Oglesby, Susi Stewart, Julia Fry. Laurena Woods, Mami A. Sissle, Emma Woods, Carrie Jackson he ranked very high in the Springfield force.

New Grocery Firm.

The firm of Samuel Schaffer & Son, engaged in the retail grocery business at the corner of Shaffer and Main streets, has been dissolved by Mr. Samuel Schaffer research of the retail grocery business at the corner of Shaffer and Main streets, has been dissolved by Mr. Samuel Schaffer research of the respective terms of the research of the

The New Episcopal Church The new Episcopal church "The Church of the Heavenly Rest," on south Plun

THE GROCERS' PICNIC.

A Day of Dust and Sport and Innoces Enjoyment-The Races and the Base Ball Contest.

Ringing Addresses by Mr. D. Q. Fox an Resume of the Fitting

The first annual picule of the Grocers association is a thing of the past and it two things.

emonstration that ever occurred in Spring

Its perfect good order; no intoxican were sold on the ground and there were no disturbances.

About 5,000 people, by a liberal estimate ook advantage of the fine weather and the excellent programme of sports promised, to take in the picule. There were all the usual gala day attractions - side-shows, hooting galleries, ball, targets, cane-racks, and refreshment booth, ad. lib. and the the cool turf under the trees. There was music by the bands and a good time gener-

The ring sports after dinner were excel lent. In the pacing race between Ashbaugh's gray "Frank A" and Andy Coleman's bay "Warrior," the former took the first, second and fourth heats and the race, making his fastest mile in 2:33. The race was hardly contested and no one had

The stake was $75.

In the pony run, Stafford's "Mountain Bird" won the first prize, $15; Col. Joe Leffel's "Lady May" the second, $10, and Auderson's pony the third, $5. The race was ground and a piece or two of stirring nusic brought the people together for the formal exercises of the day. Mr. D. Q. Fox, of Messrs. Carson & Fox, Mr. D. Q Fox, of Messrs. Carson & Fox, was introduced as a gentleman who had had, first, a long experience as a retail grocer, who was now in the wholesale trade. Mr. Fox expressed a great pleasure in the general success of the Grocers' association of Springfield in its effort to hold its first annual picnic. He believed that the social element among business men should be cultivated and, in fitting words. should be cultivated, and, in fitting words, congratulated the grocers and their families on the capital manner in which their plans had been carried out.

Mr. C. M. Nichols, editor of the REPUBLISHED

He was buried, and provided the provision of the following:

A PIONEER CONE.

A PIONEER CONE.

Paris is France' is an old saying. But we are not aware that Springfield is Clark of the old voters of 1840 are not aware that Springfield is Clark of the severe of the old voters of 1840 are not aware that Springfield is Clark of the severe of the old voters of 1840 are not aware that Springfield we have a rent aware that Springfield we have a rent aware that Springfield is Clark of the old voters of 1840 are them here. [A show of hands in this county, such is the fract hough, judging from the report in last Friday's Commerciation of the fraternity]. What I thought of saying was, in any opinion, adapted to grocers. J am very early of the capacity of city weigh mester. He was a stricken with paralysis and compelled to give up the performance of the second of the se grow and become strong. Consequently, Hasgow has flourished. The people of Springfield should adopt a similar motto, giving it a local application. "Let Springfield Flourish" should be the motto of our town. I certainly hope that the Grocers of Springfield will flourish, as they deserve to, for they have taken the steps which, if folrounding regions. For if the great body of Springfield grocers flourish the city will flourish also. The grocers should stand by themselves and by each other, and the people of the city should stand by them; and the grocers should, all of them, join the board of trade. dready prominent in the board of trade novement, for the board of trade is simply a larger and more-conspicuous institution of the same sort, embracing not only grocer but business men of all kinds, with pro-fessional men and manufacturers, etc. Now let us have this grocers' pienic every to have a good time. I was especially glad to see the amouncement that there would be no intoxicating drinks sold on would be no intoxicating drinks sold on these grounds today. Such an announce-ment was creditable to the entire body of grocers. No doubt this picule is intended as a practical demonstration that people can get enthusiastic and have a good time without beer.

grocers' fraternity. Gentlemen: I be-lieve you are going to have a good trade this year. We are now in the midst of a great policical campaign. We have a demdate, a labor candidate and a woman suffrage candidate. Consequently we shall need a great deal of sugar to meet the expenses of the campaign, and we shall also need a good deal of sand. If I were addressing the grocers of Dayton, or Xenia, or Urbana, I would say to them that we should come to them for our supply of both articles, and would expect to get them badly mixed. But in Springfield we have a met of Springfield we have a set of grocers who deal in sugar and not in sand, and there-fore we shall go to them for our sugar and to a sand bank for our sand.

Ladies and gentlemen: You are doubt-less fatigued and hungry and wish to go home. I am certainly tired and hungry and wish to leave. Let us have more of these picnics, and let us adopt at once the motto—"Let Springdeld Flourish"—and let all the people say Aman

The Springfield Lawn Tennis Club were entertained on the Kirby lawn yesterday afternoon by the Young club, of this city. The Springfield party were composed of the Misses Mast, Bookwalter, Phillips, Scott and Conklin; Messrs. Bushnell, Kel-fer, Phillips. Baldwin, Gotwald, Marsh, In-man and Phelps. The afternoon was pleasantly passed and an elegant lunch served. In the evening Miss. Eva Kenaga

THE PEACOCK CLUB.

The Members Indulge in a Discussion of the Tariff, with Mixed Results.

In the western part of Greene Township and at this place there has been a farmers' club organized, composed of prohibitionist union labor men and democrats. On Tuesday evening, July 24, they discussed the tariff question to a full house, persons coming from quite a distance. The question was

"Resolved, That a high protective tariff is a benefit to the farmer." David Hilt had been appointed to open the discussion, but when called upon he asked to be excused, as he was unprepared. George Sparraw, who was to follow, was called fout, but he admitted he did not understand the tariff question, well enough understand the tariff question, well enough to talk on it, and gave it up.

The committee having gone back on it, it left the field open for every person. The next speaker was Captam John Patton, who feit bad to think that the committee had gone back on the club. He undertook to discuss the negative, claiming that the farmer had not been, and is not, protected, cannot be as the farmer must hunt a market cannot be as the farmer must hunt a marke for his produce and must take Liverpool prices, less the freight, even if he sold to a neighbor. He stated that under a low tariff of 1848-1860 that the farm value of and refreshment booth, ad. 4b. and the pleasant noise, gaety and turmoil that distinguishes such occasions. At noon the grounds resolved themselves into a vast picnic, thousands eating their dinner upon the grounds that the farmer is losing every year and the protection the farmer was getting from the protection the farmer was getting from this protective tariff did not amount to a row of pig tracks, and an industry that could not protect itself ought not to ask for > Henry Leffel, a prohib., was the next to for free trade.

Joseph Leffel made a neat speech in fa-vor of a tariff on raw material.

R. T. Kelley was called for, and at first declined, but being earnestly requested to speak, he at last consented, and on taking the floor he took the affirmative side of the question and attempted to show the production of the farmer in the last two derson's pony the third, $5. The race was interesting, and the little flyers conducted themselves admirably. The boys' race was wen by young Ray Smith, of east Main street. There was about a blue million entries in this. The ball game is treated of at length elsewhere.

THE SPEAKING.

Brother Danforth, the father of the Grocers' association, at about half-past four, posted the band in the front portion of the ground and a piece or two of stirring $1,000,000,000.

THIEVES AT SOUTH CHARLESTON.

Two Houses Entered Last Night and Burglars were active over at Sout Charleston last night, but were not rewarded by any great amount of booty. The Collum were entered by prying a window the back part of the house. The Landaker house was pretty thoroughly gone through was taken. The intruders contented then selvis with a pair of shoes and all of the cooked provisions they could find. At Mr. McCollum's they were even more considerate. They had evidently gone through the completely. The old gray mare left with Mr. Vince in exchange for his fine horse is not recognized as being a native of that part of the country and it is supposed the Ben M. Nelson has gone to part of the country and it is supposed the parties had driven some distance. It is probable that they were parties driving through the country and resorted to this method to replemish their commissary and get a new driving horse.

Four fellows, supposed to be tramps, who were lounging around town yesterday, have been arrested on suspicion of being connected with the burglaries, but it is hardly thought that they have any connect taken by different parties from those entering the houses. The tramps may have entered the houses, but it is hardly prob

The officers are on the alert today and

FOR HARRISON AND MORTON.

The republicans everywhere are become ng more and more enthusiastic over the crowd and all the available space was fully taken. Everybody seemed full of the spirit of zealous loyaly to the G. O. P., and the speakers found themselves surrounded by a crowd in full sympathy with them. The rally was und First Voter's club, a live organization of about sixty members. Its President, Howard Mannington, the bright young "local" of the Mechanicsburg News, presided, and did it with excellent effect, covering him-

Prosecutor Middleton, from Urbana, and Rev. James Stevenson, C. S. Hamilton and church of that place. The speakers gave the old bird of freedom plenty of string, and the audience quickly appreciate good point and responded in the hearties

Old Goshen is in splendid shape, and will et better and better, thank you, until the lection will show a good, first-class majority for Tippecanoe and Morton too.

DROVE THE WRONG WAY. Two Young Feilows Attempt to Get Away

With a Springfield Team.

Marshai Willoughby received a telegram yesterday morning from J. S. Brennan, a Springfield liveryman, to be on the lookout for two fellows in a rig coming this way.

Yesterday aft-moon about 3 o'clock the of Greene county.

Elliott and Miss Real were made mar wife. 'Squire Breene performed the wife. 'Squire Breene performed the riage service. The mother of the was an attendant at the coremonics, gave her blessing, and bride and groot for their home in Greene county.

"They enjoyed a brief honeymoon, ever. An uncle of the bride, Ira S. Ot Greene county was ground to the Yesterday aft moon about 3 o'clock the of Greene county, was opposed to the described couple drove into town and were riace and determined to punish Ellion immediately arrested by Marshal Willoughby and Officers Kaveny and Magnire and taken to the station house, but were not locked up, as they furnished ball for their appearance. The owner of the rig and an attorney of Springfield came here on the evening train and ordered the parties locked up until the matter was settled. The facts in the case were that the ettled. The facts in the case were that the nen had hired the horse and buggy to drive to South Charleston, but instead came to this city, intending to go on to Columbus. Breman go onto the fact and telegraphed here for their arrest. The matter was compromised last evening by the prisoners compromised last evening by the prisoners paying for the use of the rig and costs.— London Enterprise

SUMMER

PRICE TWO CENTS.

BIG BARGAINS

FIRST-CLASS GOODS.

MURPHY & BRO.

48 AND 50 LIMESTONE ST. ecially Mention the Following out of many Bargains they offer : Black all-wool Dress Goods, 40 inches, c per yard. Colored Dre 0 $1.00.

o $1.00.

Summer Silks all reduced in prices.

Bargains in Summer Shawis and Wraps.

Bargains in Parasols.

All Wash Dress Goods marked down.

Embroideries at 5c and 10c per yard, worth three to five times the price.

Remnants at prices that will move them.

Ladies' Fast Black full, regular made.

COME EARLY

LAGONDA LACONICS. Robert Gordon is dressing up his ence in a new suit of paint.

Rev. C. J. Burkert and his nie

Robert Gordon and little son have g

Miss Eva Mowatt has returned from a visit to friends at Waynesville, Warren

Ben M. Nelson has gone to the shades of Vienna and Brighton, to

J. M. Berger showed up lively this ing, as he started out with his highly ing, as he started out with his highly orated wagon and four horses, to take Third Lutherans to Aberfelda. John Charles Simpson, who is employed at the street car stables here, undertook to ride one of the mules a few days since, but his nucleship objected, and, rearing up behind, threw Charley off, and as the ground was harder than Charley's hip, he has fined to the house ever since. Married, at the residence of the bris parents in Plain City, Madison county S p. m. last evening, Mr. Howard Kill of Laronda, and Miss Minnie Kilbury, of Layonda, and Miss Minnle Kilbury, Plain City. Mrs. J. W. Killen and I Eva Mowatt attended the wedding here. The bridegroom is engineer of malleable iron shop of the Warder, Bunell & Glessner Co.'s works here.

ticket. The Urbana Citizen tells how the voters in the neighborhood of Mechanics-burg are falling into line, as follows:

Tuesday evening William Morris, living south of Mechanicsburg, raised a fine campaign pole to the honor of Harrison and Morton, and the occasion was one of great enthusiasm. Seats were provided for a large crowd and all the available space was fully taken. Everybody seemed full of the spirit of zealous loyaly to the G. O. P., and of groves, snare drum; bass drummer in the control of the spirit of zealous loyaly to the G. O. P., and

MARRIAGE-HONEYMOON-JAHL

The Dayton Journal of this (Thur norning tells, as follows, how an op uncle makes trouble with a house freshly organized: county, obtained a license in the probate court Monday to marry Cora iteal of the same place. In his application for the license he made an afficiavit that both he and his intended were residents of this county, and that the lady was more than its swart examination Friday. It the girl's mother was present got the license, but remained Elliott answered the several which he made affidavit in bis

Colored Dress Goods at 6c, worth 12c. Colored Dress Goods at 12c, worth 25c. Colored Dress Goods at 25c, worth 40c